

A New Day in Oakland Adult & Career Education!

February 2016

In coordination with the Northern Alameda Consortium for Adult Education, we look forward to adding a College & Career Readiness Pathway Program to serve more adults in our community.

This new program will:

- Provide adults (18+ years old) with the basic English, math, English as a Second Language and study skills to successfully transition to academic and career technical education studies in the community college, or to gainful employment

Students will:

- Progress through a sequence of leveled classes
- Develop academic skills in the context of college and career readiness
- Receive guidance and support in transitioning to the community college
